Castle gate

The historic castle gate located at Zamkowa Street is one of the few remaining elements of the old Renard family estate. Until recently, it was scary with its appearance, it has just been renovated. Visitors can finally admire its historical shape. The ornaments were recreated and the roof was renovated. Two stone figures in the niches on the sides of the gate were also renovated. These are the saints: Jan Nepomucen - the patron saint of misfortunes on bridges, and Florian - the patron saint of firefighters. Both late baroque sculptures were created in the 18th century.
